

Topgolf Entertainment Group Names Stuart Foster as Topgolf U.S. Venues Chief Marketing Officer

Stuart will support the vision and strategy for the growing brand's U.S. venue business

DALLAS, Nov. 11, 2019 /PRNewswire/ -- Topgolf Entertainment Group, a global sports and entertainment community, hired Stuart Foster as Topgolf's U.S. Venues Chief Marketing Officer. Based in Dallas and reporting to the Topgolf Entertainment Group Global Chief Marketing Officer, Brian Radics, Foster will lead the overall vision and strategy to drive awareness of the U.S. venue business while generating engagement, venue visits and brand loyalty.

"Stuart brings a wealth of brand marketing experience to the team, and a keen sense of understanding when it comes to insight-driven marketing for location-based businesses," said Radics. "I am looking forward to Stuart playing a lead role in driving our growth across channels for traditional U.S. venues, as well as our emerging concepts such as Lounge by Topgolf."

Prior to joining Topgolf, Foster served as Vice President Global Brand Marketing at Hilton Worldwide. He was responsible for global positioning, strategy and marketing efforts for the Waldorf Astoria, Conrad, Hilton and DoubleTree hotel and resort brands. Foster has also led brands including L'Oréal and Moët Hennessy where he provided leadership across multiple disciplines, including global brand management, sales and business development.

"I couldn't be more excited to join the Topgolf family," said Foster. "Topgolf has grown tremendously throughout the last several years, with an inspired vision and global community. I look forward to diving in with the team and helping take the venue business to the next level."
